CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS MAKING PICTURES OF WHEAT FIELDS
C. A. Kline, secretary of the chamber of commerce, has gone to the Mesilla valley to have a number of pictures made of the wheat fields near La Union for the annual booklet which will be issued by the chamber of commerce next year.

The directors of the chamber of commerce met Friday afternoon for a brief business session. A second meeting was held Saturday afternoon at which resolutions were passed selecting senator C. H. Hudspeth and J. U. Sweeney as attorneys to represent the chamber at the meeting of the state fire rating board at Austin on the 21st.

City jailer Parker Burnham celebrated his 73d birthday anniversary Saturday.

MITCHIN CASE MAY NOT GO TO TRIAL MONDAY

There is a question as to whether the Mitchin murder case will go to trial Monday. Mitchin's attorneys insist that the case go to trial and district attorney Howe said Saturday morning, "The trial certainly won't begin if I can help it, for I feel that Mitchin is not in a fit mental condition to go to trial at this time."

R. V. Bowden, one of the attorneys for the defense, said: "Mitchin certainly will never be in a better condition until the case is tried."

FINE RAIN FALLS NEAR VAN HORN

Van Horn, Tex., June 18.—Bean Bros. report the finest rain on their ranch that they have had for several years.

Mrs. W. T. Meigs is in El Paso for medical treatment.
The ball given Friday night was well attended by the young people.
Mr. and Mrs. Murchison have returned to the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. Silliman, after a several weeks stay in El Paso.

Wallace Duncan is now night operator here, agent S. Smith having off on account of the illness of his wife.

LAND VALUES GUARANTEED.
At least the knacker has been put out of business. Lands have values that can be guaranteed. The Federal Guaranty company of Washington, D. C., ($2,000,000 capital) will absolutely guarantee, with gold bonds, purchasers against loss on their investment.

Under this plan you can purchase a lot or farm, use it for ten years, with all the speculative possibilities of increased value, then you, your heirs or assigns, can get back every dollar you paid for it, if you so desire.
This proposition instills confidence in the mind of the homeseeker or investor, as he well knows the Guaranty Co. would not, for a moment, guarantee him against loss unless the price asked was right.
In other parts of the state it is being used with wonderful success. It aids the seller and protects the buyer.
Mr. L. E. Hancock, at Hotel Sheldon, for a few days, is the special representative of this new system and will gladly explain its workings in detail. He says he also needs a district agent for El Paso territory, which is very large and valuable.

COTTON.

Market Bull.
New York, N. Y., June 18.—The cotton market assumed an idle aspect today and the prices gave way slowly to the dullness of the session, opening fractionally above the finals of last night. Old crop options ruled weak, although in October and November options there was better support and the recessions were of less importance. Foreign spinners are said to be buying some new cotton in Liverpool. The spot situation is unchanged, market ruling generally dull.

Prices Held Up.
New Orleans, La., June 18.—Week end cotton closed with an unusual degree of idleness depicted in the sales of actual cotton and dullness prevailing in the contract division. The opening was staidier and the tone quiet, but early prices held up fairly well. There was a very small volume of business transacted.

Prices Dull.
Liverpool, Eng., June 18.—There was a split of idleness in a spot cotton here today, the sales of 2000 bales being made on a decline of eight English points, at 8.01 1/2 for American middling or 14.02 in American value. The demand was poor and offerings for a time were rejected even on a decline. Futures opened easier and ruled dull. The close showed a declining tendency, being unchanged, prices going to 1 1/2 English points lower.

Spots Steady.
Galveston, Tex., June 18.—Spots were steady and unchanged. Middlings, 15c; no sales today.

LIVESTOCK.
